

Undergraduate Minor in Educational Technology

The Educational Technology minor focuses on the theoretical and practical uses of technology in learning and teaching environments. Students develop the ability to produce high-quality training and instruction materials using emerging technologies.

The Program

Program Requirements: Developed in consultation with a UA South academic advisor, the Ed. Tech. minor requires 18 units of coursework. Course selection is based on a student's professional aspirations, academic interests, and personal preferences.

I. Required Courses: (12 units)

- ETCV 302 Statistics in Information Age
- ETCV 403 Principles of Web Design
- ETCV 404 Principles and Practices of Distance Education
- ETCV 411 Application of Technology in Education

II. Supporting Courses/ Electives: (select 6 units)

- ETCV 310 Integrating Technology into the Curriculum
- ETCV 391 Preceptor ship
- ETCV 393 Internship
- ETCV 399 Independent Study
- ETCV 401 Introduction to Human-Computer Interaction

Fall Offerings	Spring Offerings	Every semester
ETCV 302	ETCV 310	ETCV 391
ETCV 401	ETCV 402	ETCV 393
ETCV 404	ETCV 405	ETCV 399
ETCV 411	ETCV 411	