Attention Undergraduates:

If you want to expand your universe and get paid for it too, do we have the job for you!

Applications are due July 5, 2013.

A NASA Space Grant Undergraduate Internship provides an opportunity for you to have a mentored research, research & development, science writing, science policy, or science education experience. The objective? To provide undergraduates who are exploring career options the opportunity to broaden their educations with rich, hands-on experience with the full process of inquiry and discovery. This includes non-science majors and those traditionally underrepresented in science, technology, engineering and mathematics.

The internship runs one academic year, 10-20 hrs/wk, at $9.50/hr.

Interested undergraduate sophomores, juniors and seniors (in the Fall semester) who are U.S. citizens are encouraged to submit an online application by July 5.

Successful applicants come from all majors throughout the university, including a fair number who do not have a science background when they begin the internship.

- Space Sciences (from astronomy, chemistry, geology, mathematics, physics, etc.)
- Engineering R&D (agricultural, aerospace, aeronautics, chemical, electrical, industrial, mechanical, optical, etc.)
- Earth & Environmental Sciences (atmosphere, geology, ecology, agriculture, geography, etc.)
- Software & Systems Development (computer engineering, computer science, MIS, web applications development, etc.)
- Science Education & Outreach (K-16, informal education, translational science, technology transfer, website design, graphic arts, multi-media production)
- Space & Astro Biology (astrobiology, humans in space, protected plant environments, etc.)
- Social Sciences, Policy & Management (all social science, business and policy majors)
- Science Journalism & Technical Writing

For more information and online applications, please visit our web site at: <http://spacegrant.arizona.edu/opportunities/internships/> or contact Susan Brew, Space Grant Program Manager: sbrew@lpl.arizona.edu.

Educational Enrichment Foundation (EEF) Internship Description

Educational Enrichment Foundation (EEF) is an independent non-profit 501(c)3 organization founded by Tucson's community and business leaders to support the students and teachers within Tucson Unified School District schools. Established in 1983, EEF is the oldest foundation of its kind in Arizona and serves 56,000 USD students annually. Through its classroom grants, scholarships and programs for financially in-need and at-risk students, EEF provides direct resources to TUSD school sites, teachers and students to ensure that all students have access to a quality public education. EEF programs are supported by corporate and non-profit grants, payroll deductions made by hundreds of dedicated TUSD employees and contributions from the general public.

Unpaid internships at EEF are available year-round for students attending the University of Arizona and Pima Community College studying sociology, business administration, public policy, communication and education. Internships are available each semester (fall, spring and summer) or year long. Arrangements for academic credit must also be handled and approved by a student's department.

This summer, an intern can assist EEF with the coordination of our annual Ray Davies Luncheon, compiling program data based on school year reports, as well as preparing programs for the upcoming school year and participating in the general day-to-day activities at EEF.

Internships take place at EEF's office located at St. Mark's Church (near Speedway and Alvernon) and typically involve a 9-15 hour per week commitment during the regular school semester. Internships at EEF are primarily project-based and involve a combination of independent practice and guided supervision by EEF staff. Areas of professional concentration include:

- Communications Campaigns (social networking, database maintenance, public/media relations)
- Research (statistical, historical, general)
- Project Administration (report writing, correspondence, record keeping)

Event Production (planning, logistics, production)

Qualifications of an ideal candidate include but are not limited to:

Excellent written and verbal communication skills.

Personable and friendly.

Ability to multi-task.

Must be able to effectively work individually and as part of a collaborative team.

Strong organizational skills and detail oriented.

Proficient in MS Word and Excel.

Interested applicants should submit a simple letter of introduction and resume to info@eefucson.org and follow up with a phone call (520/325-8688) after this initial submission.

University of Arizona Cooperative Extension Sustainability Externship-Summer 2013

The University of Arizona Cooperative Extension Sustainability Team is seeking resident undergraduate students for an externship program for the Summer 2013. This Externship program is intended to provide undergraduate students with a work experience addressing community-scale sustainability projects in several rural communities throughout Arizona. Qualified externs will be paid minimum wage ($7.65) for up to 10-12 weeks and 40 hours per week of work. These Externships will provide students with unique opportunities to develop and use their 'in-demand' knowledge and skills about local sustainability, as well as engaging with local stakeholders to meet the needs of a community. Externs will work directly with and be supervised by UA Cooperative Extension Agents in their respective project communities. Preferably, students will be matched with an Externship project in the county or community of their residence. The program is specifically not limited to science and engineering students, although US citizenship is required. Applications are especially encouraged from members of under-represented minority groups and from women. Students must have at least sophomore standing at the University of Arizona in order to apply. APPLICATION DEADLINE: MAY 17, 2013

Horticultural Videos for Small-scale Vegetable Production, Phoenix, Maricopa County Extension

contact: Kelly Young (email: kyoung@cals.arizona.edu)

For more information about any one of these projects, contact the Extension person listed for the project. EMAIL COMPLETED APPLICATION TO KELLY YOUNG

While most of your time will be spent actually doing the project, Externship responsibilities include:

Work in the project location for up to 12 weeks at 40 hours/week during Summer, 2013

Report to county Cooperative Extension Director or Agent on daily to weekly basis and develop evaluation criteria and metrics to measure sustainability outcomes as well as knowledge gained through implementation of project.

Work with important community stakeholders to implement project.

Draft press release to announce completion of project and develop communication product (e.g. newsletter article, conference poster, PowerPoint presentation) to teach decision-makers and stakeholders about the project and your experience.
