

ONGOING SESSIONS AND ACTIVITIES

Admissions and Arizona Experience Program Information

Diamond Atrium - Student Union Memorial Center, Third Floor (hint: same place you checked in!)

If you have any questions about the day's activities and schedule, need directions, a cup of water, or have questions about your application, next steps, or requirements, stop by our hospitality table where our admissions staff and Arizona Ambassadors will be happy to help you!

Lunch in the Student Union Memorial Center

A busy day like this, you need to recharge, right? We gave you a $10 meal card when you checked in, so whenever you're hungry, feel free to dine-in and enjoy our diverse and yummy cuisine!

Visit the Recreation Center

Check out our recently renovated and state-of-the-art Rec Center! There's way more than just an epic pool and huge weight room. See for yourself how it was selected as one of the "25 Most Amazing Campus Student Rec Centers!"

UA Libraries Scavenger Hunt

Main Library - Cherry Avenue and the UA Mall

Check-in at the Reference Desk and use your smartphone to participate in a self-guided tour of our Main Library

Disability Resource Center

DRC Lobby - Highland Commons (next to the Sixth Street Parking Garage)

The Disability Resource Center leads the campus in the creation of inclusive learning and working environments and facilitates access, discourse, and involvement through innovative services, programs and partnerships.

Residency Classification

Room 347 - Modern Languages

If you have questions about your residency status or establishing residency, drop in at any time during the day.
