2015 Summer Intern Application

The Arizona Cattle Growers' Association (ACGA) is seeking applicants for one summer intern. The internship program is a joint collaboration between ACGA and the University of Arizona. It will be available for one enrolled* student in the College of Agriculture & Life Sciences who would like to have an in-depth experience of the Arizona cattle community. Experiences will include working with ACGA, the Arizona Beef Council, on a ranch and experiencing and assisting with other cattle community events. Applicants should be familiar with Microsoft office, Facebook and have strong communication skills. If you have any questions please contact Anna Aja at 602-267-1129 or aaja@arizonabeef.org. The internship is paid but the intern will be responsible for finding housing in the Phoenix area. Internship will be 6-8 weeks, start and end dates are negotiable. Submit this application with a resume by March 27, 2015. *Student must have completed at least one year of school at UA and still have at least one year left to complete.
