

ARIZONA LAW DAY—October 23, 2015

Arizona Law Day offers an inside look at the James E. Rogers College of Law for prospective undergraduate and graduate students. Featuring inspiring alumni and faculty, the half-day program will provide students with the opportunity to learn about Arizona Law admissions, programs, and extracurricular activities. Current law students will also address the audience and answer questions. The day finishes with an invitation to the Arizona Law Homecoming-Centennial reception.
