Early Progress Grades (aka mid-term grades or mid-semester grades)

Who is getting them?

6,000 unique students will receive at least 1 early progress grade! The majority being freshmen, but will also include upperclassmen.

See screen shot of how students will see grades in UAccess on next page.

For which courses?

ENGL 101A, 101, 102, 106-108, and 109H (all sections)

MIS 111 (all sections except Honors)

MATH 112 (all sections)

LASC 100X/SBS 100X (all Wildcat Academy sections)

When is this happening?

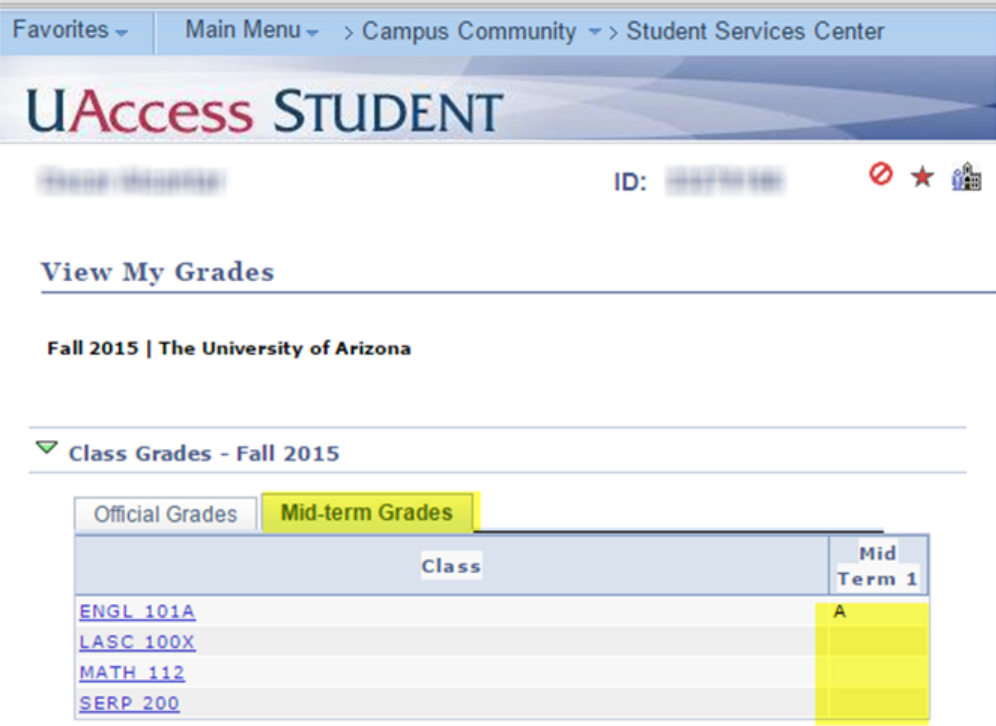

Between October 1st – 14th

In anticipation of student response to their early progress grades it is important that as a campus community we are prepared to support, engage, and challenge our students to be active participants in their academic success. We are looking forward to the impact this will make on students' success this semester.

Our hope is that student interactions with instructors and advisors, along with larger institutional messaging, provides an early intervention opportunity. Messaging would include "What now?" scenarios, encouraging them to evaluate their progress, having quality discussions, and connecting with academic support programs, e.g. Think Tank.
