

Life Along the River

Ancestral Hopi at Homol'ovi

ARIZONA STATE MUSEUM DECEMBER 2017 — JUNE 2019

Join us to celebrate the opening of our newest exhibit and Dr. E. Charles Adams, on the occasion of his retirement. Both programs are free.

DECEMBER 8, 2017 | 6:30 — 9:00PM

Panel discussion about Homol'ovi with Chuck Adams (ASM)
Leigh Kuwanwisiwma (Hopi Cultural Preservation Office)
Susan Sekaquaptewa (Hopi Foundation)
Gwen Setalla (Homol'ovi State Park)

Honoring Dr. E. Charles Adams
Reception and Exhibit Viewing

DECEMBER 9, 2017 | 9:30AM — 2:00PM

Curator-led tours with Chuck Adams
Talks by Susan Sekaquaptewa (Hopi gender roles)
and Gwen Setalla (Hopi pottery)
Music by Clark Tenakhongva
Make a clay pot with master artist Gwen Setalla
Piiki making demonstration by Dorothy Denet
Look at animal bones with zooarchaeologist Dr. Matthew Rowe Grind corn with a mano and metate and and enjoy other hands-on, exhibit-inspired crafts and games

LANDSCAPE IMAGE

Little Colorado River, Navajo County, AZ
Aerial photograph © Adriel Heisey, 2017

CERAMIC LADLE

Bidahochi Polychrome ladle
Ceramic, c. 1325-1385 CE
Homol'ovi I, Little Colorado River Valley, Navajo Co., AZ
2004-1081-8

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

ARIZONA STATE MUSEUM

www.statemuseum.arizona.edu

Clark Tenakhongva performances courtesy of Canyon Records
Reception supported in part by UA School of Anthropology