2nd Annual UA Inclusive Excellence Symposium

Inviting Communities to Dance: Sustaining a Culture of Responsibility, Accountability and Collaboration

March 30, 2018 | 8:00 AM – 3:30 PM | Student Union Memorial Center

Come attend the 2nd annual UA diversity conference where participants learn about issues of and explore solutions to campus diversity and inclusiveness. There are 18 educational workshops planned and two keynote speakers this year! In partnership with the UA Campus Pantry, the symposium will focus on combating food insecurity in our campus community. Thus, in lieu of a registration fee, we are asking each attendee, if possible, to please donate one non-perishable food item when checking in at the symposium.

REGISTER TODAY: <https://tinyurl.com/2018IESymposiumRegistration>

Registration closes on March 2nd at 5:00PM. Spots are available to the first 300 people to register. Registration will close when we reach capacity.

Opening Keynote Speaker Dr. Amanda Kraus

Dr. Amanda Kraus is the Director of the Disability Resource Center and Interim Executive Director for Housing & Residential Life at the University of Arizona. She is also an Assistant Professor of Practice in Center for the Study of Higher Education. Dr. Kraus serves on the board of the directors for the Association on Higher Education and Disability (AHEAD) and has had the privilege of delivering keynotes at campuses such as Singapore Management University, Duke University, and Wake Forest University. Outside of work, she is an avid wheelchair tennis player and was recently recognized as one of Tucson's Top 40 Under 40.

Luncheon Keynote Speaker Dr. Damon A. Williams

Dr. Damon A. Williams is a visionary and inspirational leader, and one of the Nation's recognized expert in strategic diversity leadership, youth development, corporate responsibility, and organizational change. One of the original architects of the Inclusive Excellence concept in American higher education, he is a global thought leader having worked with more than 1,000 colleges and universities, Fortune 100 companies, foundations, and government agencies as a keynote speaker, strategist, educator, and social impact leader. He is currently chief catalyst for the Center for Strategic Diversity Leadership and Social Innovation.
