

Academic Eligibility Policy

Updated 3 22 19

Academic eligibility is automatically calculated at the end of each enrolled term and/or when grade activity occurs.

There are 5 academic statuses determining eligibility to enroll in courses.

1. Eligible

- All new students begin with a status of Eligible
- Students must earn a 2.0 or higher cumulative GPA to continue having a status of Eligible
- Students with a status of Eligible may enroll in courses

2. Academic Warning

- Occurs when a student who were previously Eligible does not earn a 2.0 or higher cumulative GPA
- Students with a status of Academic Warning may enroll in courses; however, they will be contacted by their college or school and required to complete an intervention
- Students who begin a semester with a status of Academic Warning and earn a cumulative GPA of 2.000 or above will return to Eligible

3. Academic Probation

- Occurs when a student who was previously on Academic Warning does not earn a 2.0 or higher cumulative GPA
- Students with a status of Academic Probation may enroll in courses; however, they will be required to participate in an intervention developed in partnership with each college or school and the University's student success program
- Students who begin a semester with a status of Academic Probation and earn a cumulative GPA of 2.000 or above will return to Eligible

4. Ineligible

- Occurs when a student who was previously on Academic Probation does not earn a 2.0 or higher cumulative GPA
- Students with a status of Ineligible may not enroll in courses; however, they may submit an appeal requesting an additional semester of Academic Probation
- When an appeal is granted, a student may enroll in courses but they must complete requirements stipulated in the appeal decision such as dropping certain courses, using specific campus resources, or creating an action plan. If a student does not complete the requirements specified in the appeal, future appeals are not likely to be approved.

5. Academic Review

- Occurs when a student earns a cumulative GPA of 2.000 or above, but a semester GPA less than a 2.000
- Students with a status of Academic Review will be contacted by their college or school

The statuses above determine eligibility to enroll in courses at the University; however, they do not determine eligibility to enroll in specific programs, colleges, or schools.

Standards for specific programs, colleges, and schools are determined by each program, college, or school. After the second enrolled term, programs, colleges, and schools may require a Major Change or a College/School Change as part of the academic status. Students with a Major Change will work with their college or school to determine a new academic program within their college/school. Students with a College/School Change will be directed to the Academic Advising Center in the College of Letters Arts and Sciences (CLAS) where they may work with an advisor to enroll in courses, transfer to a new college or school, or discuss appealing.

A student's eligibility to enroll in courses does not ensure "Satisfactory Academic Progress" (external link) for financial aid purposes. Students who receive financial aid should consult directly with the Office of Scholarships & Financial Aid.
