

SEPTEMBER EVENTS

GLOBAL EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING (GEL)

CULTURE EVENT

Come learn more about GEL and the new virtual platform being offered this semester to students. You will get to meet the GEL team, learn about upcoming events, and see highlights from our previous domestic and international trips.

9/28/20
12-1 pm

CATS IN THE COMMUNITY EVENT

Flowers are the art and bullets are the struggle. Flowers and Bullets mission is to reclaim and amplify Latinx cultural roots through sustainability, art, and rebellion to liberate, heal and empower youth and communities in Barrio Centro. Come learn more about the history MidTown Farm and how to get involved.

9/29/20
12-1 pm

GLOBAL CONVERSATIONS EVENT

Lionel Davis is a former political prisoner who served several years on Robben Island prison with former President Nelson Mandela during the Apartheid years of South Africa for his activities and involvement in the National Liberation Front. Lionel tells the story of his life in District 6 and how his antagonism towards white authority motivated his activism in parallel with what is currently occurring in the Black Lives Matter Movement.

9/30/20
10-11:30 am

RSVP HERE!

OR YOU CAN FIND THE ZOOM LINKS ON OUR WEBSITE:
HTTPS://GEL.ARIZONA.EDU

Follow us on social media

@uofagel