

Cultural Humility & Supporting Native Students with Dr. Iris PrettyPaint

Wednesday, February 17, 2021

12-2 pm (MST)

Register here:

<http://bit.ly/DrPrettyPaintCulturalHumility>

Space is limited and registration is required

Priority to those who are University of Arizona and Diné College affiliates

Dr. Iris PrettyPaint (Blackfeet / Crow Nations) is a leading authority on Native student achievement and recognition; cultural resilience and health realization; Indigenous evaluation, community prevention; community and family engagement with rural and urban AI/AN communities. She guided the development of the Family Education Model, which integrates family-centered strategies for evaluation, networking, cultural activities, counseling, life skills, and mentoring.

Native American Initiatives

RESEARCH, INNOVATION & IMPACT
Societal Impact

For questions or accommodations, please contact: Cara Duncan Shopa at caraduncan@arizona.edu