THURSDAY, FEB. 23

WHITE SAVIOR COMPLEX & THE PEACE CORPS: COMMUNITY DISCUSSION (HYBRID)

LOCATION: TBD and ZOOM (12:30-2 p.m.)

Join us for a community discussion about White Savior Complex, how it intersects with Peace Corps past and present, and how volunteers can work effectively and respectfully in communities around the world.

PEACE CORPS RECEPTION

Forbes lobby (5-7 p.m.)

At this event we will celebrate our Peace Corps Community, their service, and those interested in serving. RPCVs will be invited to share their stories of service and advice for future volunteers.

SATURDAY, FEB. 25

SOCIAL MIXER WITH THE DESERT DOVES

The Boxyard (4-6 p.m.)

The Desert Doves is a nonprofit membership organization for Returned Peace Corps Volunteers (RPCVs) in southern Arizona. This will be a great opportunity to meet and network with a variety of RPCVs in our community, many of whom are doing amazing work with nonprofits, governmental organizations, and other community organizations.

MONDAY, FEB. 27

PEACE CORPS INFO SESSION (ONLINE)

ZOOM (2:30-3:15 p.m.)

Join Peace Corps' state-wide and campus recruiters for an info session to learn more about Peace Corps service, benefits, and application process.

TUESDAY, FEB. 28

SERVICE FAIR @ CAREERS WITH IMPACT DAY

Bear Down Gym (1-4 p.m.)

The Peace Corps Prep Program is partnering with Student Engagement and Career Development to include a service fair at their Careers with Impact Day. Our Service Fair will include a variety of local nonprofits which align with the work that Peace Corps Volunteers do - so you can understand how local service and internship opportunities can prepare you for service in the Peace Corps.
