

Multiple Mini Interview Evaluators Needed!

Interested in selecting the next generation of veterinarians? College of Veterinary Medicine Admissions office is recruiting evaluators.

The purpose of hiring Admissions Evaluators is identify interprofessional professionals that will support the values, thought patterns and other critical skills that are important when selecting candidates at this stage of the review process. Hiring experienced and trained evaluators will ensure a committed cohort to participate the entire interview season and provide stability and inter-rater reliability when studying the applicant pool.

Supplemental Compensation is also available to qualified employees. MMIs will be conducted on Fridays from 815am to 945am and/or 1045 to 12pm.

Interested, please email Sabrina Perez at sabrinapz@arizona.edu with a statement indicating why and your experience in admissions by November 01, 2020
