

You are Invited!

“Brush and Woody Species Management: Working with Landowners and Collaborative Groups to Apply Knowledge”

Brush Management Workshop #3

Funded by Western SARE
(Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education Program)

October 4, 2018

8:00am – Noon: presentations & discussion
Noon – 1:15pm: lunch & video interviews
1:00pm - 3:00pm: presentations & group discussion

King’s Anvil Ranch

(includes refreshments, lunch, and workshop materials)

To Register:

<http://whoozin.com/H7C-WEA-ERET>

Questions? Contact Sarah King: sarah@altarvalleyconservation.org

Limited to the first 40 registrants

Please RSVP by October 1, 2018

Topics & Speakers:

- Recap of Big Themes from First Two Workshops with Discussion – Elise Gornish
- Conservation Planning and Brush Management Tools – Kristen Egen
- Site Selection Strategies and Possible Treatments, with Break Out Groups & Reports – Dan Robinett
- Monitoring Protocols and Tools ~ From Sky Down and Ground Up – Sarah Noelle & Robert Davis
- Small Group Discussions on Workshop Takeaways & Possible Next Steps (Evaluation) – Barb Hutchinson & Sheila Merrigan
- Brush Management Website & Videos – Sheila Merrigan & Angel Marquez

This is our final workshop in our series sponsored by the Western SARE.

To view materials from previous workshops, please visit:

<https://globalrangelands.org/brush-management-workshops>