

Programmatically, continuing and non-continuing agents are held at equal status.

Non-continuing agents can request to move from non-continuing to continuing status at either the assistant or associate levels. Associate is the highest level a non-continuing agent can achieve with non-continuing status.