

TAKING THE FIRST STEPS TO IMPACT

PROTECTING YOUR WORK WITH TECH LAUNCH ARIZONA

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2
12:00 - 1:00 PM
LIVE VIA ZOOM

AS A UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
RESEARCHER, YOU DEVELOP
INVENTIONS THAT CAN CHANGE
THE WORLD.

TECH LAUNCH ARIZONA CAN HELP PROTECT THEM AND BRING THEM TO THE WORLD THROUGH COMMERCIAL PATHWAYS

You've spent your career developing your cutting-edge research. Now is the time to make sure the Intellectual Property is protected. Join Senior Licensing Manager for the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences Tod McCauley, CALS Assistant Dean for Research Zeliann Craig, Ph.D., and Professor and Collaboratory for Anti-Infective & Therapeutic Strategies Co-director Gayatri Vendantam, Ph.D. as they discuss the first steps to generating impact.

PANELISTS:

GAYATRI VENDANTAM, CALS inventor of a novel vaccine strategy, will talk and answer questions about her experience patenting innovations

ZELIEANN CRAIG, CALS Assistant Dean for Research, will discuss the importance of innovation to the college mission and how CALS supports inventors and inventorship

TOD MCCAULEY, Sr. Licensing Manager for CALS and Tech Launch Arizona, will talk about the many resources available to help researchers patent University of Arizona IP
