

The Pharmacy Professional and Graduate Student Symposium

October 2nd, 2015

8:45 AM – 3:30 PM

BIO5 103

This student-organized symposium is designed to introduce graduate and professional pharmacy students to interdisciplinary collaboration, professional development, and networking within the field.

Yosyong Surakitbanharn, PhD
Pharmaceutical Consultant in CMC Development

"Experiences in Industry and Consulting Within the Field of Pharmaceutical Sciences"

Wisam Younis, PharmD
Senior Manager, Pharmacy

Clinical and Population Based Services

"The Role of Pharmacists in Managed Care Organizations"

Annie M. Wong, PharmD, CGP, BCPS
Clinical Pharmacy Coordinator

"Pharmacy: The World of Opportunities"

Michael H. I. Shiue, PhD
Pfizer, Inc. Senior Principal Scientist

Pharmacokinetics, Dynamics, and Metabolism

"How Do You Position Yourself? A Career Guide to the Pharma Industry"

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Lois Lehman-McKeeman, PhD
Distinguished Research Fellow in Discovery Toxicology, Bristol-Myers Squibb

"The Road(s) Not Taken: An Industry Career in Toxicology Research"

Pastries and Refreshments!!
Lunch provided with RSVP

Please visit
www.pharmacy.arizona.edu/studentsymposium
for speaker schedule and RSVP
(RSVP before September 28th for lunch)

Funds from the R. Ken Coit Endowed Chair helped underwrite this event, along with the following organizations:

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
College of Pharmacy
Graduate Program

GRADUATE & PROFESSIONAL
STUDENT COUNCIL

APhA-ASP
AMERICAN PHARMACISTS ASSOCIATION
ACADEMY OF STUDENT PHARMACISTS

