

FROM ABD TO PhD

SPRING 2018 WORKSHOP SERIES

Purpose: Provide writing support for ABD (all but dissertated) students, discuss shared concerns about the dissertation process, and introduce strategies to facilitate writing. All participants should come prepared to write and work collaboratively with peers from diverse disciplines. Coffee, tea, water, and light snacks will be provided, as will pens and ruled notepads. Students can attend in person or online; registration is required.

Thursday, January 25 (4:30pm-6:30pm), Science-Engineering Library, Room 311

Topic: Literature Review 2.0: Synthesizing Information

Register at the following link: http://bit.ly/abd2phd_litreview2

Description: In this graduate writing workshop for ABD students, we will discuss how to synthesize information gathered from secondary sources, including how and when to paraphrase and use direct quotations.

Thursday, February 22 (4:30pm-6:30pm), TBD

Topic: Writing In-depth Analyses to Support Your Research

Register at the following link: http://bit.ly/abd2phd_writinganalyses

Description: In this graduate writing workshop for ABD students, we will discuss how to write thoughtful and relevant interpretations of data and findings.

Thursday, March 29 (4:30pm-6:30pm), TBD

Topic: Revision and Grammar Special Topic: Sentence Fluency

Register at the following link: http://bit.ly/abd2phd_sentencefluency

Description: In this graduate writing workshop for ABD students, we will focus on issues that interfere with sentence-level fluency, including grammar patterns, transitions, and sentence structure. Please bring a short sample of your writing (either hardcopy or on a laptop) with you to this workshop.

Sponsored by

Graduate & Professional Student Council
Graduate Center

Facilitated by

Writing Skills Improvement Program

