

Graduate students from various disciplines and institutions participate in the Graduate Writing Institute (GWI) to enhance their academic writing skills and make progress on a personal academic writing project.

The GWI helps participants complete research projects, articles, conference presentations, grant proposals, theses, and dissertations.

PROGRAM DETAILS

(All times U.S. Pacific Standard)

WRITING WORKSHOPS

- Every Mon/Wed, 9 – 11 am

WRITING BOOTCAMPS

- Every Mon/Wed, 11 am - 12 pm

FACILITATED TUTORING GROUPS

- Small groups meet with GWI faculty for 2 hours, twice weekly (days & times vary)

INDIVIDUAL TUTORING

- Individual tutoring with GWI faculty for 50 minutes, twice weekly (days & times vary)

Student Testimonial

"I cannot thank you all enough....I feel so encouraged to continue pressing onward on my journey for my Doctorate. This experience was a catalyst for my next steps as a PhD student."

Graduate Writing Institute

DATES: June 7 – 25, 2021

LOCATION: Online

COST:

$175 University of Arizona graduate students

$400 Non-University of Arizona students

**The GWI is designed for graduate students, but post-docs interested in developing their writing skills while working to complete a scholarly document are welcome to apply.*

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

April 16, 2021

Apply online

<https://wsip.arizona.edu/program/graduate-writing-institute>

CONTACT: Writing Skills Improvement Program

writingskills@email.arizona.edu

Ph: (520) 621-5849