

Careers and Internships with USAID

Student Professional Development Session

Samantha Alvis
Senior Advisor for Higher
Education
Center for Education
USAID/Washington

Dr. Samantha Alvis is currently the Senior Advisor for Higher Education in the Center for Education in USAID/Washington. In this role, she provides technical support to field offices to design activities that engage higher education institutions or post-secondary student populations and works to advance higher education programming across sectors within the Agency. Prior to joining USAID, Dr. Alvis was the Director for International Development and Programs at the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU), where she oversaw a number of projects and initiatives related to the comprehensive internationalization of APLU member campuses. Samantha completed her Ph.D. in international agricultural development and agricultural communications from Texas A&M University. In this presentation, Dr. Alvis will discuss numerous career and internship opportunities with USAID.
