

Publish or Perish Workshop: Writing and Communicating your Work in the Academic World

Sponsored by the Global Health Alliance
and Public Health
Student Alliance

What is it?

This workshop will inform participants about the publishing process along with the benefits, ethics, and nuances of academic writing. Participants will have an opportunity to ask an expert panel of published faculty and students about publishing and how to take part in the publishing process.

Who can come?

This workshop is open to ALL students, faculty, staff, and community members. Upper level undergraduate and graduate students who are interested or are currently in the process of publishing are especially welcome.

When is it?

February 24, 2011 4:00 - 6:00pm

Where is it?

Drachman (Pharmacy) B109

Register

Registration is FREE. Please visit: <https://sites.google.com/site/mezregconf/> to register. Light refreshments will be available on a first come first served basis.

Contact

Beatrice Abiero (beatrica@email.arizona.edu) if you have any questions.

