

FALL 2013: HYBRID COURSE

Science Journalism JOUR 472/572

INCLUDES A FIELD TRIP TO THE MT. LEMMON SKYCENTER

Open to undergraduate and graduate students in ALL majors

FOX FUR NEBULA BY ADAM BLOCK, MT. LEMMON SKYCENTER

- Study with Professor Carol Schwalbe, a former National Geographic editor.
- About half the classes will be face-to-face, the other half online.
- Gain career skills that will give you a competitive edge. Write science articles for newspapers and magazines. Learn to design and produce infographics. Or produce short videos, photo stories, podcasts, audio slideshows or other projects for the Web.
- Interact with prominent science journalists and scientists.
- Visit the Mt. Lemmon SkyCenter for the after-dark viewing of the cosmos through a 32-inch telescope.
