

CALL FOR ARTISTS

AHESC Sustainability Art Show

Presented by the University of Arizona as part of the inaugural Arizona Higher Education Sustainability Conference

The art show will feature sustainability in medium and message and is open to students, faculty, and staff from any higher education institution in the state of Arizona.

SUBMISSIONS: Up to 5 entries

Submissions please send to:

<http://form.jotform.us/form/33374586842161>

FEES: No entrance fee

DEADLINE: 20 Jan. 2013 for proposal

EXHIBIT: March 24th through April 12th

AWARDS:

1st Prize $300 (1) Faculty & Staff (1) Student
2nd Prize $200 (1) Faculty & Staff (1) Student
3rd Prize $100 (1) Faculty & Staff (1) Student
Peoples Choice (1) TBA

Everyone who exhibits will get a participation certificate

Exhibits will be on display March 24th to April 12th, in the University of Arizona Student Union Memorial Center Gallery. Winners will be announced at the closing reception that will take place at the SUMC gallery March 24th at 5:00p.m.

QUESTIONS PLEASE EMAIL

artshow@AHESC.org

WHAT IS SUSTAINABILITY?

sus·tain·a·bil·i·ty | noun

1. the ability to be sustained, supported, upheld, or confirmed.
2. The concept of sustainability centers on a balance of society, economy and environment for current and future health. Responsible resource management in all three areas ensures that future generations will have the resources they need to survive and thrive.

THE RULES : All entries must be your own work. You retain the complete rights to your work. Your entry must fall under the theme of Sustainability. You can submit up to 5 submissions. All mediums are welcome. Your work must be gallery ready (for getting your work ready please see: <http://www.union.arizona.edu/involvement/galleries/exhibitionguide.pdf> Submissions are due by 1.20.14