

Volunteer Opportunity!

SouthWinds Farm has received a grant from NRCS to purchase a high-tunnel. The materials have been delivered and the next task is to assemble and construct the high-tunnel. The farm is seeking volunteers to help with this. This is a great opportunity to learn about organic sustainable agriculture in Southern Arizona and spend a day out on the farm!

What: Assist in assembling and constructing a steel frame high-tunnel greenhouse (30' wide by 150' long by 12' high). Tasks will include assembling frame, installing anchors, erecting frame, installing cover, constructing end panels.

Where: SouthWinds Farm, Cochise County near Benson
2404 E. Gingerbread Lane, Benson AZ 85602

When: Saturdays, November 19, December 3, 10, 17
8:00 am – 5:00 pm
If you plan to stay all day, don't forget to pack a lunch.

SouthWinds Farm owned and operated by Joe Marlow, is a small farm dedicated to growing delicious healthy foods, using organic and sustainable methods. Our farm runs primarily on solar energy. Located in the San Pedro Valley, near Benson, we strive to provide the freshest, highest quality vegetables and fruit to our customers. We are proud to provide our high quality produce to The Coronet, Agustin Kitchen, and Exo Roast Co. You can find our produce weekly at the Rillito Farmers Market on Sundays and Green Valley Farmers Market on Wednesdays.
