

Agronomist- Research Farm Manager

A full-time position is available immediately at the Pennsylvania State University to manage a field research farm located in Willcox Arizona. Duties include management of all field operations under center pivot irrigation focusing on the response of maize and common bean to drought. Duties include management of field plots, labor pool, liaison with donors and suppliers, acquisition of seeds, supplies and equipment, and management of budgets.

Specific position requirements:

1) Academic preparation:

BS in horticulture or agronomy

2) Agricultural experience:

experience in crop production experience with farm machinery including GPS planters experience with pesticide use and application, and relevant safety procedures

experience with soil fertility management and soil cultivation experience with irrigation equipment

3) Management experience

experience supervising employees experience with managing budgets, payroll, basic accounting

ability to liaise among various stakeholders/constituents to achieve a common goal demonstrated leadership capabilities

Please contact Dr. Jonathan Lynch, JPL4@psu.edu