

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL & BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

Women in Science
& Engineering

BIO/ DIVERSITY PROJECT

HELP DIVERSIFY THE ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES AND DEVELOP THE NEXT GENERATION OF ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE LEADERS, STEWARDS, AND SCIENTISTS BY WORKING AS AN ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE OUTREACH EDUCATOR IN LOCAL K-12 SCHOOLS.

RECEIVE TRAINING, MENTORSHIP, AND WORK EXPERIENCE WHILE NETWORKING WITH ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE LEADERS FROM SAGUARO NATIONAL PARK AND THE ARIZONA-SONORA DESERT MUSEUM.

10 HOUR/WEEK TIME COMMITMENT

3 units of internship credit available through:

- Biosystems Engineering
- Ecology and Evolutionary Biology
- Geosciences
- Environmental Studies
- Molecular and Cellular Biology
- Public Health
- School of Geography and Development
- School of Natural Resources and the Environment
- Soil, Water and Environmental Science
- Sustainable Built Environments
- Teaching, Learning, and Sociocultural Studies
- Gender and Women's Studies
- General Studies
- UA Honors College

HOW TO APPLY:

Complete the online application:
wise.arizona.edu/Bio-Diversity-Project-Intern

Email your resume to Elena at elenagreenberg@email.arizona.edu

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED ON A ROLLING BASIS FOR SPRING 2019

For more information about the Bio/Diversity Project, go to:
wise.arizona.edu/the-biodiversity-project