

Aquaponics Design

Summer
Session 1

BE 334 (3 units)

[ONLINE]

Great class for Engineers, Biologists, Growers or anyone interested in a fun summer elective online

Online Class Offers: Flexibility, Hands-on Learning Activities, a Group Design-build Project, and the Opportunity to Become Proficient in Aquaponics Design

“Since taking this class, I have built an aquaponics system at my house and now produce my own greens” -Former student

“This class is a shining point of light for the student looking to learn about sustainable methods of food production” -Former student

TOPICS INCLUDE: INNOVATIVE DESIGNS, CARING FOR FISH AND PLANTS, WORKING WITH PVC, SELECTING THE APPROPRIATE SYSTEM, AND TROUBLESHOOTING AND UPKEEP

INSTRUCTOR:

Dr. MATTHEW “REX”
RECSETAR

- Former Extension Aquaculture Specialist
- Aquaponics Consultant
- 10+ years of experience in aquaponics design

“The projects and homework are genuinely useful and fun!” – Former student

Contact:

msreca@arizona.edu