

Parks in Focus Seeking Volunteers

Tucson, Arizona

parks in focus
Udall Foundation

Photo By: Renne, age 13

Photo By: Hailey, age 11

Parks in Focus® is a program of the Udall Foundation that provides opportunities for middle school youth to explore and learn about nature through photography, environmental education, outdoor recreation, and creative expression.

Volunteer Description:

Parks in Focus is looking for new volunteers to assist with its Tucson program. Activities include classroom visits, field trips to local parks, and weekend camping trips for groups of youth from Boys and Girls Clubs, Big Brothers Big Sisters, schools, and other local youth organizations. Volunteers support Parks in Focus in a variety of ways, including:

- Assisting with trip logistics (e.g., meal preparation, organizing gear)
- Helping lead environmental education activities, photography lessons, games, etc.
- Documenting our activities and participants via photo and video
- Assisting behind-the-scenes with photo management, data entry, and multimedia projects

Desired Qualifications:

- Love of the outdoors and the ability to spark that love in others
- Experience and/or interest in photography and environmental education
- Experience and/or interest in working with youth in outdoor and overnight settings
- Must be able to attend a volunteer training and orientation
- Must be willing to provide fingerprints for a criminal background check

Benefits of Volunteering:

- Build skills in photography and teaching while working with local youth
- Visit parks and public lands throughout Arizona
- Food and campsites provided during Parks in Focus activities
- Volunteer training opportunities, appreciation, and recognition events

Interest Sparked?

Email Us:
parksinfocus@udall.gov

Call Us:
520.901.8569