

Rangeland Monitoring 101 Workshop

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
Cooperative Extension

Thursday, November 17, 2022

Deep Well Ranch, 8400 State Hwy. 89, near Prescott, AZ (see map on reverse)

This workshop is free & lunch is provided if you RSVP by Monday,
November 14, 2022

All are welcome!

Public Land Management Agency Professionals and Ranchers are highly encouraged to attend this workshop.

9:00 am	Registration
9:30 am	Overview of the May 26, 2022 Workshop – Dr. Larry Howery
10:15 am	Travel to Field
11:00 am	Hands-on, In-the-field Practice of Monitoring Methods (Split Groups/Rotation #1) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Point Ground Cover, Pace Frequency, and Dry Weight Rank – Steve Cassady &amp; Iric Burden</li><li>• Production &amp; Comparative Yield – Ashley Hall &amp; Chaz Perry</li><li>• Utilization – Kim McReynolds &amp; Felicia Ferguson</li><li>• Interpreting Ecological Site Descriptions (ESDs) &amp; Terrestrial Ecological Units (TEUs) – Andrew Brischke</li></ul>
12 Noon	Lunch – Generously Sponsored by Arizona Cattle Growers' Association & Yavapai Cattle Growers' Association
1:00 pm	Hands-on, In-the-field Practice of Monitoring Methods (Rotation #2)
2:00 pm	Hands-on, In-the-field Practice of Monitoring Methods (Rotation #3)
3:00 pm	Hands-on, In-the-field Practice of Monitoring Methods (Rotation #4)
4:00 pm	Evaluations and Adjourn

Wear outdoor clothing appropriate for field work; please bring a chair and clipboard if you have them.

RSVP to kkudukis@arizona.edu before Monday, 11/14 for accurate lunch count

8400 State Highway 89, Prescott, AZ

8400 AZ-89
Prescott, AZ 86301

