

U.S. Department of the Interior
Bureau of Land Management

Become a Rangeland Management Specialist in California!

Vacancies: Bakersfield Field Office, Eagle Lake Field Office & Applegate Field Office

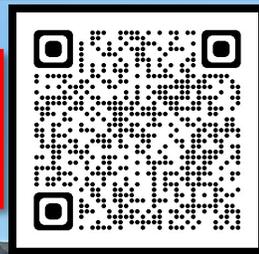

Do you have a degree in Rangeland Management or a similar field? Do you love working outdoors? Are you passionate about working landscapes and ecosystem services? Then this opportunity is for you!

Some Of The Duties Include:

- Ecosystem Monitoring & Restoration
- Grazing Plan Monitoring
- Wild Horse & Burro Monitoring
- Rangeland Improvement Project Development & Implementation
- Consultation, Collaboration & Cooperation with Public Land Stakeholders
- Interdisciplinary Team Leadership
- Environmental Assessments
- Digging Soil Pits, Identifying Plants, & Working Around Livestock of all Classes
- Being Comfortable in Remote Areas & Safety Focused

Apply through USAJOBS.gov today!

Full Time, Permanent, GS 7-9 (Open to the public)
Full Time, Permanent, GS 7-11 (Merit)

For more information on each field office, please contact: Chris Mitchell: cmitchell@blm.gov (Eagle Lake Field Office), Sarah Bullock: sbullock@blm.gov (Bakersfield Field Office), or Kevin Kunkel: kkunkel@blm.gov (Applegate Field Office)