

WE ARE HIRING AT THE MANRRS CONFERENCE!

WHO ARE WE?

The United States Forest Service is an agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture that administers the nation's 154 national forests and 20 national grasslands. The Forest Service manages 193 million acres of land. Major divisions of the agency include the Chief's Office, National Forest System, State and Private Forestry, Business Operations, and Research and Development.

WHEN AND WHERE ARE WE HIRING?

The positions will be announced on USA Jobs April 10-20, 2023

OPEN POSITIONS

- Forestry (timber and silviculture)
- Forest and environmental planning, Hydrology, & Soils
- Wildlife biology, Fisheries, Botany, & Ecology
- Recreation, Special Uses, & Geographic Information Systems
- Administrative Assistants
- Budget and Financial Analysis
- Information Technology Specialist

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- Current undergrads, graduate students, and recent graduates
- Applicants do not need to be at the MANRRS conference to apply

For more information scan the QR code and register for our job seekers data base.

