

Intern with NCBA

WORK ALONGSIDE AMERICA'S BEEF FARMERS AND RANCHERS!

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES:

MEETINGS AND EVENTS INTERNSHIP

Denver, CO | Paid Opportunity

This internship provides students with hands-on experience in association event planning including small meetings and large-scale conventions and trade shows. Interns will learn about association management operations, registration, housing, catering, audio-visual, sponsorships sales, customer service, supplier relations, exhibits/trade show, event marketing, entertainment, and overall event production. Internships are offered in the fall, spring, and summer semesters.

Application Window: Applications Open Two Semesters Before Start Date

PUBLIC POLICY INTERNSHIP

Washington, D.C. | Paid Opportunity

The National Cattlemen's Beef Association, in conjunction with the Public Lands Council, offers internships for the fall, spring, and summer semesters in Washington, D.C. This internship is a unique chance for students interested in the beef industry and federal policy. Interns will have the opportunity to engage with NCBA and PLC staff on several fronts, including policy, communications, and membership, and will work closely with the lobbying and regulatory teams to advance policies important to the beef and sheep industries.

Application Window: Application Opens Two Semesters Before Start Date

CONVENTION INTERNSHIP

Location Varies Based on Convention Location

Convention interns have a one-of-a-kind experience supporting the annual Cattle Industry Convention and NCBA Trade Show. The internship is for the week of the convention (typically late January to early February) and interns will assist with executing the meetings and events at the convention, working the Demo Arena, supporting speakers, and ensuring a flawless visitor experience with thousands of attendees.

Applications Window: Applications Opens Summer Before the Next Convention

Founded in 1898, the National Cattlemen's Beef Association (NCBA) is the oldest and largest national organization advocating for America's cattle producers. Headquartered in Denver, Colorado with a public policy office in Washington, D.C., NCBA is the trusted leader and definitive voice of the U.S. cattle and beef industry.
