Officer / Committee Reports:

Vice President: Cassandra H.

- ❖ “Happy to be here” (No news to report)

Treasurer / FOC: Oskar A.

- ❖ IN THE BANK: $3346.46
- ❖ $590.59 less than the original $3937.05 after a significant unexpected expense to purchase freezers and transport steer raffle meat.
- ❖ Club asks any members if they have any opinions on future use of the freezers (ex allowing wildlife to share when we don't have steer raffle meat, if we should rent the space out etc) to share with the officer team!
- ❖ We are Forming the Financial Oversight Committee for next semester. Contact Oskar at oskaranderson@arizona.edu or in the groupme if interested!

Secretary: Philly M.

- ❖ Changing the sign-in method to fully digital now.
- ❖ Expect Meeting Minutes the day after meetings!

Old Business:

- Steer Raffle Updates and Push to sell
 - We are at the home stretch with the steer raffle and we need to be pushing it more if possible! Ask professors if they can share it in class or on D2L!
- AVCA Monitoring Updates:

- AVCA will be meeting at 6 am this weekend to avoid the rising heat.
- If you want to sign on for shifts, more slots need to be filled in Sling. If you have not already been added but you would like to be, please let the officer team know!
- Testimonials from students:
 - “It’s a great experience to use hands-on skills and GIS in the field...” -Ethan Smook
 - “It is useful to learn how to use a compass...” -Oskar Anderson

New Business:

- TS Brand
 - Vote #GA_2025-26_000: Vote on Official TS Brand
 - Tabled until next semester- if you want to submit any designs, email them to the club!
- Sheep Shearing debrief:
 - Flavie was not here this time to discuss but students who went talked about their experiences. It was a ton of fun and a great opportunity!
- ASUA Club Awards (We were nominated for an award!)
 - Thursday April 17th 5pm
- End of the year Shindig
 - Brian is still planning on location, tentative date for the first weekend in May.
- Goal Setting for the upcoming year
 - If you have any ideas, activities, etc you want to see next year let us know!

Next Meeting will be outside at the sand volleyball pits by the Global Center. There will be food and will be a nice break around finals. We will be doing the steer raffle drawing there as well!!
